

What we do with your information

Thank you for telling Healthwatch your story.

Together we can make a difference to health and social care services by sharing stories like yours with the right people.

When we share stories, we do this in a way so that people cannot tell who it is about.

We will always keep your information safe.

If you do not want us to keep your information any more please tell us.

Healthwatch is the organisation that helps people speak up about health and social care.

We make sure that people who plan, run and check services:

- listen to people who use these services

- think about what people are saying

- use this information to make services better

Get in touch with us if you want to speak up about health and social care services.
